

REBELS. We sell papers to boys on the several railroad running from Lexington, but are in no way responsible for the delivery or non-delivery of papers. We will not permit a boy to have papers who cheats his customers, if we know it, and that is as far as we can exercise any control over them.

CAPTURED BY GUERRILLAS ON THE LEBANON RAILROAD.—It would seem that a regular system of guerrilla warfare had been inaugurated in Kentucky. Not a day has passed during the present week that we have not had to record outrages perpetrated by these highwaymen, who are paralyzing the State, and each day adds to the boldness of their adventure and the enormity of their outrages. Governor Bramlette has not been a moment too early in calling upon the loyal citizens of Kentucky to arm in the defense of their State and their country. The designs of the enemy should be thwarted by just such vigorous measures as Governor Bramlette has adopted.

Yesterday afternoon, about two o'clock, the Louisville and Nashville railroad was captured at New Hope, twenty miles from the junction, by the celebrated bushwhacker, Capt. Richard. The road was so obstructed by the rebels as to prevent the train of the track, and after it had run off they fired into it, causing the utmost consternation among the passengers. Richardson then made a demand for the money of the train. In the helpless condition of the passengers, they could do nothing more than yield to his demand. After the surrender, however, all the passengers were robbed of their clothing, money, and other valuables, the cars were set on fire and destroyed, and the locomotive was turned over for a short distance. The utmost indignity was offered the passengers, and outrages were perpetrated of that stealing, cut-throat character which characterize these scenes of the chivalry. The locomotive was so disabled as to be rendered useless and the most expensive repairs.

We have not learned the number of passengers on the captured train. We understand, however, they are all paroled and allowed to depart—most of them minus coats, boots, money, etc. After doing all the damage they could, the rebels left in the direction of Lebanon.

CAPTURE OF GLASGOW.—As we anticipated the reports in reference to the capture of Glasgow have been greatly exaggerated. As we gather them from a reliable source, as follows: The Rebels were attacked in the middle of the night; and so sudden was the onslaught upon them that they were thrown into confusion, and many of the men fled. Major Martin, however, with the greatest coolness and gallantry, aided the Henry, and from his hotel, fired six shots into the ranks of the enemy, wounding several, who were carried off by the rebels, and finally, with the assistance of Lieut. Chenoweth, who also bore himself with the greatest gallantry, compelled the guerrillas to retreat. After retreating, however, they succeeded in capturing about ninety men and an equal number of horses, with fifty or sixty mules. After they had fallen back Major Martin rallied his men and gave pursuit, overtaking an engaging enemy a short distance from the town, and recapturing all the horses, guns and other property taken from him.

M. J. Martin, Major of the Thirty-seventh Kentucky Mounted Infantry, was all over the town, and many of them had not yet been mustered into the service. Under all the circumstances, no officer ever bore himself more gallantly. Lieut. Chenoweth is also entitled to the highest praise for the coolness and bravery he displayed. The rebels, in their retreat, left a First Lieutenant on the field, who fell under the terrific fire of Major Martin. He died on Wednesday at Royalty's in Glasgow.

THE THEATRES.—Benefit this evening at both houses. At Wood's, Mrs. Walker produces Naomi the Deserted, translated and adapted expressly for her from the French play which, as Leah the Forsaken, has met such unprecedented success in the Eastern cities. She will be supported by the best talent in the city. At the Grand Opera, the drama of "Wake not the Dead," introducing the original ghost, which the curious will all want to see. We bespeak for Mrs. W. an appreciative audience, for she is a talented actress.

At the Louisville, Mr. Hackett, the imitator of Sir John Falstaff, will repeat Henry IV., and a new farce, called "The Forty Thieves," written by Manager Fuller, who is becoming a fine dramatist, will be produced. The wonderful boy Angelo will give his daring performances on the flying trapeze, and Monteverdi will repeat his strange contortions and graceful posturings. Mr. Hackett has a world of admirers, and about half the world will honor his benefit to-night.

THE CASES OF THE UNITED STATES vs. JOHN A. BRADY.—The cases of John A. Brady, the late Governor of New York, were yesterday determined in the United States Circuit Court, now in session in this city. The jury in each case brought in a verdict for the United States. These suits were instituted on bonds given by defendants to keep the peace and be of good behavior, &c., towards the United States during the present rebellion. Judgment was rendered in a number of like cases by default.

The idea that bonds of this character were invalid has been industriously disseminated by rebel sympathizers in this State, and many persons have been led to violate their bonds under the impression that they were of no force. The decision of the question will tend to correct this evil and make these bonds a wholesome restraint on the over-zealous. A hold on a secessionist's purse has a wonderful effect on his patriotism.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen and City Council last night a resolution was passed ordering a joint session of the two Boards on Thursday night of next week for the election of Tobacco Inspector, Interpreter of the Tobacco Inspector, and Interpreter of the City Council.

A resolution was also passed appointing a committee consisting of two members of the Council and one member of the Board of Aldermen to make arrangements to provide fuel for the destitute poor of the city.

NEW TOBACCO.—Two hogsheads of new tobacco, belonging to M. A. Montgomery and J. Milhousen, of Davies county, were sold yesterday at the Boone Warehouse for $17 and $14 50 per hundred, and the house of the Missouri leaf was also sold at the same house for $67. Mr. W. J. Anderson was the purchaser.

Major J. H. Simpson, Chief of Engineers of General Burdette's Staff, has charge of the construction of the Military Railroad, the improvement of negro laborers, and all business relating to the same. General Boyle has no connection or authority over the same, having been relieved.

NEW MUSIC.—We are indebted to D. P. Feltow for Will Hays's latest song and chorus, "We Never Meet Again," and "The Redoubt," composed by an amateur. Both are brought out in the usual elegant style of our city publisher.

The McMinnville Prisoners.—The force captured by the Confederates at McMinnville was composed of the following regiments: 2d Indiana, 2d Ohio, 1st Wisconsin, 4th Tennessee, and two battalions of the 24th Tennessee.

An expert and distinguished plebeian plebeian will leave the city tomorrow to try the rebels in angling in the classic waters of Muddy Fork in our neighboring State of Hossier.

PERSONAL.—His Excellency, Gov. Bramlette, is in the city, stopping at the Galt House.

John Bryant, captain of C. Fifth Kentucky Cavalry, died in hospital at Nashville on the 7th.

NOTICES OF THE DAY.

WANTED.—A good German woman, who is accustomed to needle-work, and is qualified to take care of a child two years and a half old. Liberal wages will be given. Apply at this office.

Postoffice currency will be exchanged at a discount for larger United States notes.

Fashionable millinery at Mrs. M. D. Gilchrist's, 413 Jefferson street, south side, between Fourth and Fifth streets. $12 50m.

Ladies, look at the beautiful hat with the inside lining trimmed with Green & Green's. It is the only thing in town of the style and the latest Broadway novelty.

Special attention is called to Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale of fine furniture and piano; also a fine saddle and harness house.

$1,000 REWARD.—The above reward will be given to any person who will furnish a prescription for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Whooping-cough, and Consumption, to the proprietors of the "Cough Cure," Dr. J. C. Spencer, 413 Jefferson street, south side, between Fourth and Fifth streets.

The Grover & Baker Sewing Machine was awarded the highest premium over all competition at the late Fair of the Kentucky State Agricultural Society.

A young lady, whom we can recommend as possessing very uncommon education, talents, and accomplishments, and who has testimonials from the professors of the University of Louisville, and the University of Kentucky, is now in the city.

Dancing.—Mr. Watself respectfully informs the public that he has opened a dancing school at the Masonic Temple, for tuition, Friday at 3 P. M., and Saturday at 10 A. M. Tickets one dollar. Admission by tickets only. Terms per quarter $10, payable in advance.

Chills and fever have lately become very prevalent in this city. A cure is speedily effected by its use. Our friend Dr. Thos. A. Hurler is the proprietor of this medicine, and his office is on Green street, between Sixth and Seventh.

The undersigned would take this opportunity to apologize to their friends and patrons for the delay in the delivery of their goods, and to inform them that they are now in the city, and are ready to receive their orders.

We learn from citizens of Montgomery, who have arrived in this city since the occurrence above related, that the Union men of the neighborhood, in retaliation, have burned the village called Ticktown, and killed a man by the name of Greenwald, who was charged with harboring the desperadoes who committed the terrible massacre of Glasgow.

Perfumery and toilet articles—a full assortment always on hand at SUE'S.

LOUISVILLE COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.—The twentieth annual picnic will be open for the reception of students on and after Monday, October 9th. See advertisement. $5 00
